

Job Advertisement

Research Assistant FOR QUALITATIVE STUDY

Number of vacant positions: 4

The BRAC James P Grant School of Public Health (BRAC JPGSPH) at BRAC University was established in 2004 as an educational and research institution focusing on the integral areas of teaching, research, and services. The goal of the School is not only to impart knowledge but also to act as a center of excellence in knowledge creation through research and training that connects with practice. This call for recruitment is on behalf of the Humanitarian Hub of BRAC JPGSPH.

Project Brief:

We are conducting a qualitative study titled “Understanding the Impacts of Climate Change on Food Systems, Nutrition and Public Health in Satkhira”. This study will be carried out within Satkhira, and we are currently looking for Research Assistants to conduct qualitative data collection. Ideal candidates should have a background in anthropology, sociology, public health, or agricultural sciences, with experience in qualitative data collection, especially in rural or coastal contexts.

Job Responsibilities:

- Conduct qualitative data collection – (IDI, PRA, KII, FGD, Photovoice)
- Communicate with community stakeholders prior to the activities and throughout the study.
- Note-taking and transcribing.

Requirement

- A bachelor’s degree in anthropology, sociology, public health, or agricultural sciences with 1–2 years of hands-on experience in qualitative data collection, particularly in rural or coastal areas.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills in both Bengali and English.
- Willingness and interest in working across different locations in Bangladesh.

Salary: Daily wages basis.

BDT. 1,000/- per day and Per-Diem as per policy

Contract Duration: Contract period will start on September 1st, and will end on November 30th 2025. Within this contract period, you will have 35 working days.

How to apply: All interested candidates are advised to submit the application by sending their CV to fabihuda@bracu.ac.bd by August 14, 2025.

Please mention Application for Research Assistant, (CCRC) in the subject line of your email.

Only short-listed candidates will be invited for the Zoom interview.

The Organization reserves the right to make an appointment at a grade lower than that advertised.