

Dissemination seminar on "A decade of Midwifery in Bangladesh" with Government Representatives and the British High Commission

Developing Midwives Project jointly organised a seminar titled "A Decade of Midwifery in Bangladesh", jointly organised by the Directorate General of Nursing and Midwifery (DGNM), British High Commission in Bangladesh, BRAC James P Grant School of Public Health, BRAC University and United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) at a hotel in Dhaka on March 30th 2022 to reflect on the progress of midwifery in the country over the past decade. Md. Saiful Hassan Badal, Secretary of the Medical Education and Family Welfare Division of the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare was present as the Chief Guest. Matt Cannell, the Development Director of the British High Commission in Bangladesh, Dr Eiko Narita, Country Representative ad interim of UNFPA and Dr Sabina Faiz Rashid, Professor and Dean of BRAC James P Grant School of Public Health, BRAC University attended as special guests. The seminar was chaired by Siddika Akter, the Director General of the DGNM and accompanied by over a hundred senior officials and representatives from different Government Ministries, development and implementing partners, and midwifery institutions.